Mrs. Stacey Nelms, 3 year old Preschool

- 20 years classroom experience
- 8th year teaching Preschool at Jordan Catholic School
- Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education, minor in Physical Education, University of Northern Iowa.
- 9 grad hours in Early Childhood (Northwestern College)

With the focus of social/emotional development, I strive to empower my students to believe in themselves while exploring, singing, dancing, playing, and learning about God every day. We love to dive in and make messes!

Ms. Katie Sheley, 3 year old Preschool

- 3 years classroom experience
- Bachelor of Arts, Communication, University of Iowa
- Grad hours in Teacher Education, Grand Canyon University
- Allowing the children to be themselves and find out who they truly are is a huge focus in my class. Getting to see them grow and learn is the best part of my job.

Mrs. Heather Coleman, 4 year old PreK

- 23 years teaching experience in PreK/Preschool
- 6th year teaching PreK at Jordan Catholic School
- Masters of Science in Education: Major Curriculum and Instruction, Western Illinois University Bachelor of Science in Education Major: Early Childhood with a Special Education Approval for PreK, Western Illinois University
- Associates Degree in Applied Science- Early Childhood Education, Black Hawk College

Humor is used in my room daily to engage children and to create a common positive emotional experience that the students share with each other. I incorporate group games daily to contribute to the positive development of social skills which provides an essential foundation for cognitive and academic competencies, not only in preschool but later in life.

Mrs. Colleen Egan, 4 year old Pre-K

- 12 years classroom experience
- 9 years teaching experience at Jordan Catholic School
- BA in Fine Arts, Edna Manley College of the Visual and Performing Arts
- Teacher Education Program, Augustana College

In my classroom, we focus on the development of the whole child. Most of our learning is done through hands-on experiences that are designed to foster a love of learning and promote a child's natural curiosity. Children are encouraged to share their ideas and discoveries with each other resulting in social interactions that create a positive learning environment.

Mrs. Jennifer Lothridge, Kindergarten

- 20 years teaching experience; 19 years at Jordan Catholic School
- 13th year in Kindergarten at Jordan Catholic.
- Bachelor of Science in Education, Western Illinois University.

Students enjoy using the interactive Smartboard in a variety of different ways in our Journeys Reading, Eureka Math, and Handwriting curriculums. For many students, the pieces of Art they create with my Educational Assistant Mrs. Dodson is a highlight of their Kindergarten year.

Mrs. Heather Roman, Kindergarten

- 16 years teaching experience.
- 11 years Kindergarten at Jordan Catholic.
- Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education and a minor in Music, Augustana College

My classroom is a positive learning environment where children are encouraged to learn through song and movement. We love to act silly and have fun!
